Introduction to the Rough Index 2010

For the last 12 years I have gradually been entering details of the vast family that my wife’s father left me. Together with my own Guernsey family I have accrued over 14,000 names mostly family, yet the Rough Index includes thousands of other names associated in some way to the family. As I am now in my 70’s, history and historic records is well in my blood and part of my life is devoted to restoring historic buses! Looking at the name in the heading, you may wonder whether “Le Messurier” is excluded. In my research I have found both versions are used frequently within the same family. My computer family history programme recognises all single ‘s’ and double ‘ss’ as the same. I have tried to enter most of the double ‘s’ in the index. By the way, I am Ray Le Mesurier-Foster, proud to be a member of the Guernsey Robin family, an ancient line in the Island. I started in 1971, piecing together my complicated family tree, then in 1997 I attended the Family History exhibition in Guernsey and met a fellow historian, Mary Le Mesurier. When I married her at the end of 1997, I was to find that her home oozed Le Mesurier material. The task ahead was to locate everything together and start getting it all on the computer. The first Index was made by Col. Augustus Le Mesurier in 1904 then the second in 1910. Comprising 113 pages it has long been the bible of the family. However, time has gone by and a hundred years later we have so much more information available, Census records, Birth, Marriage and death records ‘on line’, records from across the world, important documents stored in Archives. I have just to sit at home on my computer and gather in the information. Perhaps the best source of information is the availability of the Census records from 1841 to 1911, something that Col. Augustus could not get hold of. Hours, days, weeks, months of work on my computer has resulted in the document you now have, hopefully a wealth of family history, not just for Le Mesurier’s, but other Guernsey families.

I have tried to keep a certain format throughout the Index and you should be able to follow it through quite easily, but if I have slipped up somewhere – sorry! I have wondered how I could distribute the finished project. A Book maybe? A few books will be produced but will go to specific places like the Priaulx Library. On a disc maybe. Yes, some will be made and distributed. But the best idea is to allow you to download it from a dedicated Web-site, free of charge! You possibly got yours from www.guernsey-society.org.uk and I hope you may even have thought that joining the Guernsey Society was a good idea – 3 mags a year!

The other idea I have put into place is to split the Document into two parts, with the whole index in part one, other items of interest in part two. Then I am adding a section on photographs. I hope you have all three sections! I have not produced an index to find names as this computer version is searchable, but the best way to understand the Rough Index is to read it!

Now for the Preface, written by Col. Augustus, and reproduced in full. Bear in mind that here and throughout the Index the Colonel does make comments. Mine will have “RLMF” after the comment!

And just for the record I wish to thank:-
Amanda Bennett at the Priaulx Library and all her staff.
Transcribers of the original 1910 edition: Lloyd Brehaut, Karen-Anne Duncan, Diane Essex-Clark, Michele Gaylor, Orinda Spence, Joan Webster, Steve Marquis, Pam Hislop, Elizabeth Greef, Sally Patton, Syd Patterson, John Sabire, Ron Dobrée, Marion Mabire, Susan Patt, Janet Beach, Tina Norris Fields, Lorna Pratt, Richard Lawton, Janice Potter
Linda Holewa and the Clan Macrea Society of North America for the articles on Robert McCrea and his family.
Alex Rose for the article about Job Le Mesurier and his family.
Anyone else I may have missed.
I suppose I should thank the late Major Hubert (Bruin) Le Mesurier, M.C. for providing a wonderful daughter, for had I not married her, this production would not have happened!
There are bound to be mistakes in a work of such complexity so I apologise in advance. Corrections can be emailed to me and I am hopeful that the internet version of the Index will be updated from time to time.

History of the Le Mesurier Family by Major H.F.A. Le Mesurier

Le Messurier is an ancient Guernsey name. It first appears in Guernsey records in 1274 in the form ‘Mesurier’ and then about the year 1300 as ‘le Mesurier’ or ‘le Masurier.’ There are various theories about its original meaning which depend on the way it was spelt before the days of printing. The most persuasive is that it was an occupational name describing ‘a person…engaged in measuring land or possibly vessels and boats.’

Guernsey is an extraordinary possession of the Crown of England — a small, triangular shaped island, about fifteen kilometres long, which is closer to France than to England about fifty kilometres from Normandy as compared with over a hundred from Devon. In 1800, when the first census was taken, it had a population of a little over 16,000. Like the other nearby Channel Islands of Jersey, Alderney, Herm and Sark, it formed part of the Duchy of Normandy when Duke William conquered King Harold of England at the battle of Hastings in 1066 and has remained in possession of the Crown of England ever since, despite the loss of mainland Normandy in 1204. Massive fortifications testify to the determination of the islanders to preserve their independence from France. But they have also insisted that Britain should allow them to retain their distinctive governing bodies, laws and courts – literally to be a law unto themselves. Only in the areas of defence and international relations have the islanders handed responsibility to the British Government.

The official language continued to be French until 1926, and as late as 1947 some seventeen members of the Le Messurier family in Australia became involved in the toils of Guernsey feudal law when they were the sole heirs of the residues of the estates of two sisters, Matilda Godfray and Eliza Lihou, who had died within a short time of each other. Although it was nearly a century since their common Guernsey forbears had migrated to South Australia, the Australian heirs now received astonishingly long letters from the Channel Islands discussing such matters as escheating to the Crown and to the Lord of the Manor, ‘rentes’ of wheat, ‘propre paternelles’ and ‘propre materneles’, and inheritance ‘per stirpes’. Eventually the principal issues were determined by a sitting of the Royal Court of Guernsey on 22 April 1950. Most of the real estate went to the Crown and to the Lady of the Manor of Maux Marquis, the money, stocks, shares, and furniture went to fourteen of the seventeen heirs (three brothers evidently being excluded by virtue of belonging to a younger generation) and the proceeds from the sale of a field were distributed among all seventeen according to a complex formula which distributed amounts ranging from 2/81sts to 2/15ths, depending on the sex of the heir, the sex and number of his or her siblings, and the generation to which he or she belonged. It all gave great scope to lawyers in the Old World and the New!

Guernsey has rich collections of parish and other legal records and early this century a retired Colonel of the Indian Army, Augustus Le Messurier C.LE., made an exhaustive study of these records to compile an annotated pedigree of his family which he printed for private circulation under the title Rough Index to Le Mesurier or Le Messurier Papers (third edition, 1910). The one and two’s’ branches of the family were formally separated in 1780 when the English Royal College of Heralds granted a coat of arms to one John Le Mesurier, then hereditary Governor of Alderney, the northernmost of the Channel Islands, with the proviso that only descendants of a particular marriage of his forbears could bear that coat of arms, and only if they spelt their name with one ‘s’ — which they thenceforth made a point of doing.
As a supplement to the second edition of the Rough Index, Colonel Le Messurier arranged for a family tree to be lithographed on a series of large sheets of paper which, when joined together, form a scroll more than six metres long! Betty Moore of Adelaide, youngest grandchild of Ernest Le Messurier (1861-1937), vividly remembers seeing a copy of this scroll for the first time in 1952 when, with her sister, she paid a visit to a Miss Frederica Le Messurier in Penzance, Cornwall. A former teacher and Associate of the College of Preceptors, Miss Frederica had been entrusted by Colonel Augustus with the responsibility for carrying on the family pedigree. Leading the two Adelaide girls to a chest of drawers in a spare room on the upper floor of her house, she drew out the family tree and dramatically unrolled it right down the stairs and into the front passage – the only practicable way of displaying it in her small house. The two sisters watched this action with awe – never had they seen anything like this document. Awe then gave way to bewilderment as their enthusiastic guide conducted them up and down the stairs through the various generations and family branches. [We still have one of these scrolls and, yes, it is huge! Ray Le M F]

The South Australian branch of the family was founded by Captain Peter Le Messurier (see picture in photograph section) who was born in Guernsey at Les Sages in the parish of Torteval in the southwest corner of the island. In the family pedigree compiled by Colonel Augustus, Captain Peter’s forbears can be traced back continuously in the male line to Michelle Maeserrer who is named in a document of the year 1421. The modern spelling of the surname appears to have been established by 1487. In the sixteenth century the family was obviously well established as three Le Messurier forbears in succession were elected to the position of Jurat. In Guernsey there is no Jury System of the kind found in England. Instead, twelve elected Jurats exercise this function in four Royal Courts and to be elected a Jurat is one of the highest honours that can be obtained. Probably the best-known two’s’ Le Messurier in the more recent history of Guernsey is the Captain Nicholas commemorated in an elaborate tablet on a wall of the church of St. Peter in St. Peter Port, the principal town.
Preface to Third Edition, 1910

Ne rien nier a priori
Ne rien affirmer sans preuves!

Extracts from letters of H.P. Le M. (279) [Mary’s maternal great grandfather]
The Society of Antiquaries of Normandy has just published a work on the family names of that province, and the significations in the old Norman dialect. “Mesiere.” “Meziere,” “Maisiere,” “Maxure,” are all variants of the word “Masure,” which is derived from the Latin “Mansura,” and which in the Middle Ages seems to have been applied not to the dwelling house only but to the outhouses and dependencies and lands adjoining. In time it came to be applied to the outhouses only, and then in time to building fallen into ruins, which is the meaning it at present bears. According to Ducange there was a feudal due called “Masurage,” and the person owing it called “Masurier.” In the papers lately acquired for the nation from Lord Winchelsea there are several letters addressed to Lord Hatton (tetap. Car II.) Governor of Guernsey from Bonamys and Le Mesuriers. The Bonamys used armorial respectively dexter and sinister. Bonamys’ crest “a plume of feathers”; the Le Mesurier crest is “a falcon, wings expanded or,” or in other words, “a falcon rising, proper, wings or.” The Sausmarez also borne by Andros or by that part of the Andros family who owned the ‘Fief Sarmarez’ was “a falcon affrontant,” looking to the front, but this was not much attended to, and many of the Saumarez and Andros shields and plate bore the ‘falcon rising proper’” before 1784, or before the date when the Le Mesurier arms were registered, whenever that was, the falcon was “sable” (H.P. Le M., 1882).

There is some interesting information as to Le Mesuriers in the archives of St. Lo (Manche, France) H.P. Le M. 1887

The Societe Jersiaise have just published a copy and translation of the Assize Rolls of 1209. E. F. Carey.

“Les Mazures” Guersney and “Le Messuriers.” Trace the word from Southern Spain up through France to Britanny (H. P. Le M. 1887). “Musraa,” a ruined fortress (L. Oliphant’s Haifa, p. 15). The learned doctor Isaac Basire (b. Ronen in 1607) was son of Jean Basire and Judith Le Macherier (Notes and Queries, 7th S., II, Nov. 13, 1886, p. 391).

Mary Le Mesuriers from Dieppe by Cherbourg to St. Malo, the name spelt in various ways. Nicous (Dep. Chief Engineer, Cairo) said the name ments “gauger” or “ship measurer and registrar”. About the time of the conquest there were Mazures and Measors (there are Measors in England now) and Mazure or some such word meant at tone wall or stone building, hence said to be derived “Mansura” and the Scotch “manse” ) Brugsch’s Egypt under the Pharaohs, Vol. I, Ed. 2, 1881, Cap. XI, p. 231) H.P. Le M., 1886.

13. Colin Le Masur.

15. 1311. John le Masurier. The earliest notices I have found of the name Le Mesurier are in the Plaotæ Coronæ of the 5th Edward III. AD1331, and in the Extent of the Revenues of the Crown in the same year. In the former we find Johan Le Mesurier as one of the Jury of Douzaine of the parish of the Forest. In the Extent his name appears as well as those of Johan Le Mesurier, fs. Colin Le Mesurier and Rauf Le Mesurier as tenants under the Crown of the aforesaid parish. The fact of a territory in the Forest parish bearing the name of “les Mesuriers,” thereby indicating that it was once the property of that family, and the name not occurring commonly in any other parish at that early date, leads me to conclude that we must look to that locality for their origin. It is probably the same name as Le Masurier, and if so would be derived from “Masure,” a word now come to mean a “ruin,” but formerly signifying a “residence” as its derivation from the Latin “mansura” demonstrates (Edgar MacCulloch).

Children of Colin Le Mesurier (13).

16  Ralph Le Masur. Assize Roll 1323 “Peter le Pyrmont may follow for Ralph, Peter, Ralph and Julian les Masur” who are within age against Ralph Beauchamp in plea of land. John le Masur puts in his place Peter against the said Ralph Beauchamp (E.F. Carey).

In the Forest Assize Rolls, Ed. II, 2 (1309). It was found by the Bailiff that Ralph le Mesurer (16) took conies in the warren of the lord the King with nets and ferrets. And the Ralph settled the matter of the said trespass by 20 sols under the pledge of Peter le Marchant and Colin Le Masurer (13).

17 1331. Michel Le Mesurier. Escheat mentioned in Extente 1331, St. P. du B.
18 1331. Geoffree le Masuier.
19 1364-1370 Denis Le Masurier, Dionysius le Masurier, teneant on Bouvée “Hervy du Castel.” Extente of fief of Martinvast (now Blanchelande, St. Martin’s Parish, Guernsey).
20 Philip Le Mesurier.
21 1393. Michel Le Mesurier. Dom. Mich. Le Mesurier owed a rent of “troys sous et neuf derniers tournois and 24 9.5.1419. Pierres le Maesuryer. An old parchment, lent me by Mrs. Langlois (416b), which I had photographed. This parchment was found among the old documents of the Le Messuriers “des Sages” or “Pignon” and brought to the Fontaine St. Saviours at the death of Thomas (308) in 1877. It says that Pierre de Beauvoer was Bailiff of the King of England on 9.5.1419., and in the presence of Nicolas de Garris and Pres Le Maesuryer, Jurez in a case between Nicholas Payn fs. Colyn Payn, St. P du B. of the one part and James Olivier fs. Nicolas Olivier deceased, of the same parish, of the other part. James de la Pure, Colyn Allessandre and Mary Davye are mentioned.
On 13.7.1903. Colonel de Guerin wrote me, “The date 1419 is undoubtedly a clerical error on the part of the clerk. In 1419 the Bailiff was James Coquere, who held that office from 1411-1433. Pierre de Beauvoir was Bailiff from 1470-1480, and as both Nicolas de Garis and Pierre le Messurier were Jurats under him, I think we can fix the date of MSS as 1479, i.e. quarante cents soixante et dix neuf. Soixante being the word omitted. The vendor and purchaser are also to be found in the other deeds of this date. The writing and legal phrasing are also of a later date than 1419. It is certainly a very curious error, but it is not the only one in existence. I know of two other of Bailiff John Blondel which are dated1416 instead of 1496, the word quarter vingt being omitted.”
Note, -- If the date is 1419 then the king referred to is Henry V., but if the date should be 1479 then the reign would be that of Edward IV. And the Pierre le Maesuryer mentioned would be No. 30 (the son of Michel and Guillemyne le Prevost). But further enquiry is I think necessary, for in the Be Beauvoir Pedigree I find that Peter de Beauvoir the Bailiff = Jenette Perrin and his nephew William (s. of John) was juré 1448-1464. Also Peters’ daughter Jentte – Louis de Vic. Bailiff and Peter’s brother James = a grand-daughter of James Coquerel, Bailiff. The Register shows Peter de Beauvoir as Bailiff 1470-1479. (A. le M.)

25 Nicolas Le Mesurier. Owed a route of 3 sous 9 denerels to heirs of Denis (19).
26 Colin le Meaesurrer or Le Maeserrer = Ester Brehault and died before 21.2.1435.

Children of ‘unknown’ Le Mesurier

27 Michel le Maeserrer. Living 1421. SPDB and old enough to be a rent-holder then.
   His wife was Guillemyne Le Prevost d. of John Le Prevost Senr.
   He probably died before 21.2. 1435 and his wife probably died before 21.3.1470.
20.2.1435. Sur l’ertiage de John le Maeserier du Valrouf (Forest).
   John le Maeserrer (brother of Michel. (27)), his nephew Pierres Le Mesurier (30) inherits.
   Also spelt le Maesurer.

Child of Colin Le Mesurier (26).

29 Alichette le Masesurrer or le maeserrer fe Ester Brehault.
   21.1.1435. Nicolas Brehault for his wife Alichette, d. and part heir of Colin (26) le Maesurrer, her father, deceased (De Garis MSS. Says John), assigns 9 bushels, 1 cabotel of annual wheat rent to Pierres Falle and John Le Vecheux; to receive 6 bushels from the son of Michel, and 3 bushels, 1 cahotel from John (27A) du Valrouf of the Parish of the Trinity of the Forest.

Child of Michel Le Mesurier (27).

30 21.3.1435. Pierres Le Mesurier.
   A rent due “the son of Michel.” Therefore Pierre, probably of age at this date and in possession of real estate of his own, or if a minor, he had lost one or both of his parents, probably his father, as the rente is due from him as “son of Michel,” and not in right of his mother.
10.1477 Pierre le Maesurier.
9.5.1479. Pierrcs le Masesuryer Jurat (see No. 24).

31 Pierre Le Mesurier.
32 Denis Le Mesurier held land on Le Bouvée Aubert on fief Blanchelande (undated extente 1488-1498.)

Children of Pierrcs Le Mesurier (30).

H. P. le M.’s pedigree begins here with Peter, R.C. 30.9.1492.

26.11.1487 Buys from John de la Court, fs. James de la Court of Catel (heritage Philipin de beaucâp), Guillemyne Fauochin, alias Falle, d. of Pierrcs Fauochin, the wife of fs. Pierre (31), Martin de Pestis, her grandfather.

H. P. LE M’s 6th entry as wife of John Dobrée.

51c Michelle Le Mesurier d. of John Le Mesurier = John Dobrée.
H. P .LE M. says that this John Dobrée. Gent. (said to be of Condé, Normandy), who came to Guernsey with Gabriel de Lorge, Comte de Montgomeri, fled from the persecution against the Protestants to Guernsey about 1580. The ancestor of the Dobrées of Guernsey. An armourer. Built la maison du Polet in Guernsey.
The Dobrée papers state that the Dobrée family of Guernsey are descended from the D’Aubray family of Normandy and Paris. This family of substantial citizens hold the baronies of Aigle and of Bruyères le Chatel, the Comteship of Offrément and the seigneuries of Villiers, Boissyes, Eglis, &c. – that this Jehan D'Aubray first came to Guernsey in 1559-60 in company (tradition says) with Gabriel de Lorge, Comte le Montgomeri, one of the Huguenot leaders (as referred to in the English Grant of Arms, 25.4.1726) – that this Jehan Dobrée married a Guernsey lady Michelle Le Mesurier d. of John Le Mesurier, Jurat, and that the first record of him in the island is in Act R.C., 18.12.1560.
It is not known exactly who was the father of this Jehan Daubray, but in the Dobrée pedigree a Jehan is shown who = Marguerite Preteseigle (de Prestescelles). No other information is vouchsafed about him, whereas all the other members of the family are accounted for, and the only other Jean (of the next generation) became (as stated in the tree) a Carthusian Monk.
It is known also that Jehan died 27.11.1568 and was buried in France. It is also known that the first Jehan who came to Guernsey did no die, or at any rate, was not buried in the island, and it is believed that Michelle was his second wife. The D’Aubray pedigree was drawn up about 1600 or about 40 years after Jehan came to Guernsey, which may account for the fact that no information appears in it about Jehan except his (first) marriage.
Jehan Dobrée, though he did not finally settle in Guernsey till 1560, was apparently there as a trader at an earlier date for on 29.1.1537 he, with others, was fined 18s. short duty to the King. If then this Jehan Dobrée has been correctly located in the D’Aubray pedigree, he married (1) Marguerite de Pretescelles and (2) Michelle Le Mesurier d. of John, Jurat of Guernsey, and he died 27/11/1568. His parents were Guillaume Dobrée (Marchand bourgeois de Paris, died before1538) and Jeanne Marais. This Guillaume Dobrée was the son of Jacques Dobrée and Jeanne Dingchein.
This Jacques Dobrée had a brother Guillaume Dobrée, a tapestry merchant in Paris, who = Francoise Binet. The children of Guillaume and Francoise were, viz.
Francois Dobrée (marchand bourgeois de Paris, Baron de Bruyères le Chatel, Gentleman in suite of Francois, Duc d’Alencon, bought barony de l’Aigle 1555) = Catherine de Pretescelles.

Jean Dobrée (Avocat au Parlement) o.s.p. 9.5.1552, and three daughters, Catherine Dobrée, Marie Dobrée and Marguerite Dobrée.

The children of Francois and Catherine de Pretescelles were, viz, Nicolas (Baron de l’Aigle and de Bruyères le Chatel, S’t de Boissyes, Eglis, &c.) Cons’t. du Roy 15.9.1547 – 19.10.1570 = Jeanne Godefroy.

Claude, Cons’t. du Roy 21.4.1579, who = Margaret Lallement and Claude’s son Jean was a Carthusian monk, and a daughter Catherine who = Baron de Neufbourg.

Reverting to Jehan Dobrée who = (1) Marguerite de Pretescelles and (2) Michelle of John. He had a brother Claude Dobrée who = Denise de Creil. Claude’s grandson, Dreux d’Aubray (Comte d’Offremont, Lieut’ Civil, de Paris) died 1666 = Marie Olier, and of their children.

Marie Madeleine Dobrée (b. 24/7/1630 = 20.12.1651. Antoine Gobelin Marquis de Brinvilliers,) was tortured, beheaded, and burnt in Paris 17.7.1676 for poisoning her father and her two brothers.

Antoine (b. 8.10.1632 Comte d’Offremont, Cons’t. du Parlement 19.7.1653 poisoned 17.6.1671 ) = Marie Therese Mangot.

Francois poisoned 12.11.1670 and Therese, a Carmelite nun of Convent of St James 1676.

All these later events occurred during the lifetime of Judith Le Mesurier (131h) who = 22.8.1661, Samuel Dobrée s. of Thomas Dobrée of Smith St.

29.1.1537 Jehan Dobrée with others fined 18s. short duty to the King.

30.6.1563 Jehan Dobrée v. Gilles St Germain (= 1586 Anne le Moyne, sister to Marie wife of Jean (64).)

9.2.1565, 13.2.1565, Collas Le Mesurier (64b) s. of Jean v. John Dobreye for his wife to pay arrears of 3 cabots.

27.2.1565 Collas Le Mesurier (64b) to prove v. John de Garis, tutor, that he is his guarantee since 8 years in the affairs John Dobrée and of the mother-in-law of said Dobrée.

11.3.1565 John de Garis v. Collas (64b) and will pay 6 years’ arrears, viz., 3 cabots of wheat rent yearly against John Dobrée.

These last 3 entries evidently refer to partage of Jean (46b) for Michelle (54d) d. of Michel could not have been interested therein. 24.9.1568, 21.5.1569. Diary of Jean Girart. Debts that I owe. Michelle, d. of Michel, s. of Pierre, mentioned in the Contract.

27.4.1594 Sale by Mr. Henry Smyth, s. of Ambrose Smyth of Wythcock (Leicester) to Richard le Lacheur, s. of Pierre le Lacheur (Torteval) of the “champart” (every twelfth sheaf) on 2 pieces of land (fief St. Michel, St Pierre du Bois) one of which is called “le pieche de trois verges” below “le coudrè,” which said land the said le Lacheur had purchased from John Dobrée in right of his wife Michielle, d. of PIERRE. (Note – Herein Michelle, wife of John Dobrée, is styled “daughter of Pierre.” Query of Pierre (49b) or of Pierre (46). Note also that Michelle (54d) sells (4.4.1580) le Camp Massy Brehat to her cousin James (56), and also sell the same field, a year later (1581) to James (75) her nephew. These entries indicate not only the existence of Miclelle (54d) and of James (56) and of James (75), but of another Michelle, d. of Pierre (46), who in Deed 27.4.1594 is wrongly styled wife of John Dobree.)

The absence of any other record of the marriage of Jean and Marie le Moyne can be accounted for by the fact that she possessed no property in Guernsey and therefore there could be no partage of her real estate; also for the same reason it is improbable that any record of her existence would be found at the Greffe. The family of Le Moynes fled to Guernsey after 1572. One John le Moyne of Vitré = Anne de Lisle at St Peter Port in 1574. John le Moyne, the father of Marie, died in Guernsey. This Thomas le Marchant was father of Sara Le Marchant, who = Jean 18.12.1605.
Note. – The division of Jouanne Henry’s property is apparently between Ronault, guardian of John (64) s. of John (51), and his uncle Nicolas (51a). If this reading is correct John (64), who was a minor in 1562, cannot be the John (81) of the Le Mesurier pedigree who died in 1665. This has led to the insertion in my paper of John (64) as an extra generation. The connection of the Le Messuriers of the Town and the St Saviour’s Branch is proved by 2 “jugements” quoted by Reserson 21.4.1613 and 8.12.1614, in which John (64) Le Mesurier, s. of John (51) de la Ville and Leonard (65) Le Messurier, s. of Nicolas (51a), are called the grandsons of John (46b), who owed certain rentes to his brother James (46a) the grandfather (sic) of the wife of the said Leonard. The de Garis MSS. Gives a resumé of this jugement, but without the details of the pedigree given at the Greffe. [Note. – Leonard’s wife was the great granddaughter and not granddaughter of James (46a) as in the de Garis
MSS. She is called fe. Leonard fs. Thomas.”] From the de Garis MSS. We can trace this branch of Le Mesurier back to Michael (27), living 1421. (De Guerin to Carey 27.5.1902.)

64a. Pierres Le Mesurier.

24.5.1591/2. Heirs of Pierres v. le Seigneur.

A daughter Marie Le Mesurier (82), b. 8.7.1599, Jean Queripel, Godfather, and a son Mathieu Le Mesurier (82) (see also 54b). [Note.- Reversion says that “Pierre sold on 2.12.1622 his right which he inherited from Pierre, Sen r, s. of Collas (cousin germain of Jean le Mercier) to Jean his brother.” I can only satisfy the conditions of this entry by supposing that John (46b) had a brother Nicolas (46d?), and that this Nicolas had a son Pierre, who would thus be cousin germain or first cousin to John (51), also herein styled “le Mercier.” If so, Pierre (64a) in 1622 sold his right in the heritage of Pierre, s. of Nicolas (46d) to his brother John (64). This Jean of the Foulon who lived in Town (later styled “le Mercier”) had sold on 15.7.1611 his share in his mother’s estate to his half-brother Jean Brouard.

Note. – H. P. Le M. in a letter from Cairo 2.8.1880, says that Nicolas’ son was John (who sold his estate at the Foulon to his cousin John, who also had lands there) and that John’s son was Leonard.

65 Leonard (des Prevost) Le Mesurier.

1586-9 Edmond le Feyvre Custode. (Here is a distinction between “Custode” and “Tuteur”). The meaning, I believe, is that Custode is a guardian to a person over age who is an imbecile or a spendthrift, while Tuteur is guardian to a minor. Tuteurs are appointed for children while the father is alive, to see that partage is made correctly according to law, and that the father did not keep back any portion of a first wife’s inheritance or that one child benefited more than another.

Jean, de la ville and parish of St Peter Port. Endorsed to Mr Jean Perchard, guardian of his children in right of Anne Mauger, their mother, for 3 Q² wheat rent on Jean, s. of Nicolas, by the assignm't of Henry Blondel. 15.6.1572. His father’s partage. Nicolas tuteur Jean receives under the first bille 2 courtils des Domaines which adjoin the lands of Clos Vivier of Sr Pierre Lenfesty, also the following courtils, viz., de la foret called Les Batailles; de Collas des Mares; du Groignet in Catel and houquefalle, and under the 2nd bille courtil and jaonniere de la Hougnette and the following courtils, viz., du sud de la flaguee, du moulin a vent; and des plat camps.

29.3.1675. Nicolas, tuteur.

8.2.1678. Jean, tuteur to his sister Elizabeth.

2.3.1678 Jean Le Mesurier d'Aval.

12.3.1678. Jean (115) s. of Jean d'Aval (86).

24.7.1681 = MarieLe Mesurier (135d), d. of Pierre (SPDB) Le Mesurier (113b).

10.5.1682. Sale by Clement Perchard (fs. Jean Perchard and Anne Mauger) to his nephew Thomas de Lisle fs late Pierre de Lisle of 3 Qrs. Wheat rent, to receive of Jean fs. Jean (86) d’Aval, SPDB., which the said Jean (86) Senr. owed the said (Clement) Perchard on account of his late mother Anne Mauger d. of Nicholas Mauger, and which the said Jean (86) Senr. owed by reason of his said father Jean (65b) who was s. of Nicolas (51a) by the assignment of the late Henry Blondel s. of late Leonard Blondel according to LSS. 21.2.1634.

Note. – From this is seems clear that the d’Aval branch sprang from John (65b) s. of Leonard (65). 1685. On a door is cut in raised letters, J. L. M* M* 1685.

3.1.1690. Jean fs. Jean appoints his wife Marie Curatrice.

Note. In Jean’s account as tuteur of his sister Catherine there is a payment “a mon beaupere le S. Nicolas le Messurier au droit de Marguerite de Gerze la some de trios boiz de froment de rente “ for the year 1692. And on 9.7.1692 Jean acknowledges that he has received all satisfaction from his brother-in-law, James Read, for what he had paid or received for his wife Catherine (155d).

1690? In Latin. Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, records Jean as attorney in deputation for Aimara Bautior alias Bouthou of Guernsey, and John Vautier alias Voucher. Possibly in connection with the above is a certificate 9.2.1695-6, signed by Thomas Pearse, 19.9.1696 that John Voucher was set on shore from the “Milford” on 9.2.1695-6 and died 16th of the same. Also there is a paper that Anne Vautier, d. of James Vautier, appoints John, merchant of Guernsey, her attorney, to receive whatever due to John Vautier, her brother, who died in H.M. service as sailor on board the “Milford galley.” It is signed by John, and with the mark of A. V.,and countersigned Thomas, 1696. Note. There is a seal on this deed, but apparently there is no crest. The shield is like that of Le Mesurier with 3 hands and a chevron without the bezants.

23.5.1696. Certificate from Minister and chief inhabitants St. Savrs. That Anne Vautier d. of James is true and lawful heiress of John Vautier, her brother, lately deceased.

3.6.1697. Jean, administrator of John Voucher appoints Abraham Cornwall of Wapping as his attorney. Note. These may apply to Jean (141) the son of Susan de Garis. He died before 3.1.1697-8 and Susan de Garis then appointed her son-in-law Jean (146a), merchant of Guernsey, as her attorney to receive from Thomas Hopper of Bristol all money due for goods sold to him by Jean (141) deceased. This document is also sealed with a monogram of 3 or 4 letters.

11.1.1697. Douzeniers, St. Savrs., authorize Jean to receive money on bills in England.
3.9.1698. Mary Bonamy, widow of Abraham, appoints John to receive from the Navy all dues for her deceased son John, on board H. M.'s Ship the “Jersey.”

1704. Jean for his sister Catherine pays Leonard £932 s. 1d. Jean to receive from Pierre Corbin fs. Leonard.

7.5.1706. Abraham le Cornu or Cornwall John le Masurier the account of John Bonamy.

31.10.1709. Jean to receive the rents of Jean Simson for Catherine.

17.3.1712. Jean named Nicolas Reserson as his procureur.

16.7.1714. Heirs of Elizabeth Gallienne, heir in part of Sieur James, make an agreement concerning assemblage of Chef rente Fief “des Quarante Quartiers.” As this has taken considerable time to work out, I give some of the details to show the intricacies of pedigree records. Elizabeth Gallienne (decd. 1714) was a daughter of Thomas Corgin fs. Nicolas by his 3rd marriage. The name of Thomas’s first wife is not known; the name of the 2nd was Paint. Jean (86) d’Aval = Marie, d. of 1st marriage in 1654. Leonard (144c) des Paysans = Elizabeth of 2nd marriage in 1671. Thus Jean (86), 3rd in descent from John (46b), and Leonard (114c) and Pierre (114d) full brothers, and 4th in descent from John (46b), marry half sisters of the 1st and 2nd marriages respectively. From these marriages Leonard and Pierre, though relatively “nephews” of John (86), are his brothers-in-law by marriage. Then as regards their children, John (115) 4th in descent from John (46b) = Marie, 5th in descent, while Abraham and Elizabeth, children of Leonard (114c), marry their 1st cousins Judith (141e) and Pierre (145) respectively.

Notes. – 209a, 209b. The “Resolution” belonging to two brothers Le Mesurier, crew 100, guns 20 in 1779, captured 3 prizes worth £134,589. In 1782 John, Governor of Alderney, owned 8 privateers carrying 4 to 20 guns, which brought him prize money to the value of £212,381. Under the privateering rules, after the ships and cargoes were sold 1/5th of the money went to the king and of the remaining 4/5ths, two-thirds went to the owner, and one-third to captain, officers, and crew, according to seniority.

Henry (Plaisance) Le Mesurier (209a) had a book plate, also 3 of his sons, viz., Henry (239) who = Mary Dobrée d. of Isaac Dobrée, whose arms (“Gules, a crescent party per pale or and argent between 3 trefoils, slipped of the third”) he impaled.

Nicolas Le Mesurier (239c) whose plate was inaccurate inasmuch as he quartered Dobree which belonged exclusively to the Alderney Branch, and also made a mistake in the impalement which should by “party per pale azure and gules, an eagle displayed argent” the arms of the de Jersey family.

Benjamin Le Mesurier (239f) his plate bore the motto “I am ready” with the impalement of the arms of his 2nd wife, Emma Dorothy Johnson.]

     1805. Civil Paymaster and Assistant to the Collector of Bombay and Salsette.
     Collector of Bombay, Salsette and Caranja and Custom Master at Tanna and Caranja.
     Note: - A Bombay Pay-list of January, 1716, shows us the Official Salaries at that time. The Governor received £100 per annum. Next to him came 8 Merchants, who with him constituted the Council and received respectively, one £100, one £70, two £50, and four £40 each. Below them came three senior factors at £30 each, three junior factors at £15, and 7 writers at £5 each. The tale is completed by the Accountant and the Chaplain who received £100 each. A writer on entering the service had to find security for £500 which was increased to £1,000 when he rose to be a factor. The unmarried servants of the Company were lodged at the Company’s expense, the married ones receiving a lodging allowance and a public table was maintained.
     Though no increase in the salaries of junior officers took place for many years afterwards, the greater facilities opened to them, for trade attracted better men in the service, among them some cadets of good family. Trade was the only opening and that was monopolised by the Company. Except as a servant of the Company an Englishman had no legal status in the East, the chief profits went to the shareholders in London. If at the end of 25 years or so a Company’s servant could return to England with a few thousands made by private trade he was a fortunate man. In spite of small salaries, a goodly appearance was made by the Company’s servants in public. At the public table where they sat in order of seniority, all dishes, plates, and drinking cups were of pure silver or fine china. English, Portuguese, and Indian cooks were employed so that every taste might be suited. Before and after meals silver basins were taken round for each person to wash his hands. Arrack, Shiraz wine, and “pale punch,” a compound of brandy, rosewater, lime juice and sugar were drunk and at times we hear of Canary wine. In 1717 Boone abolished the public table and diet money was given in its place. At the Dewallee festival every servant of the Company from the Governor to the youngest writer received a “peshoud” from the brokers and bunyas, which to the younger men were of much importance as they depended on these gifts to procure their annual supply of clothes. – The Pirates of Malabar, pp. 105 and 268.

   18.02.1762. Indenture of John aged 17 (b. 1745) with William Carey of Guernsey, Mariner, for 3 years.
   1762. John went to sea.
18.05.1766 = Rachel le Huray d. of Nicolas of Torteval.
14.05.1769. John writes from Granada to his wife Rachel le Huray “au Presbiterre de Torteval.” The address outside being “To Mr. John le Messurier in Torteval to be left at Captain Peter Mollet in Horn Street, Guernsey. To the care of Mr. Wm. Seeward, merchant, in Southampton.”
11.11.1769. Jean and his wife Rachel bought the estate of les Sages from Jean Simon fs. Nicolas.
The old homestead of the Le Messuriers of Torteval was at les Galliennes. The house “Les Sages” is but little altered, from date of its construction over 300 years ago. It is built in the shape of a quadrangle, with dovecot, round arched doorway, and at the back projecting circular stones forming the spiral stair tower with small elongated windows. A few yards above on the opposite side of the lane (forming a bridle path) leading into Torteval parish is a much older building, presumably the original dwelling of Les Sages, which must be centuries old. The gable end is in Torteval, hence the name of “Le Pignon.” The Le Messuriers and the Robilliards, the leading people in the parish, centuries ago were connected with the property of le Sages (or more correctly Benfval) either by descent or purchase. The Court of this Fief is held opposite this venerable mansion.
1750-1. There is an account signed Jean (180?) Le Messurier of 4 captures made in 1747 by the Jersey galley, the “Fox,” and the “Patache” realizing net £1826 6s. 0d. of which £865 1s. 9d. is due to Ph. Mauger for 27 men aboard the galley: £448 11s. 3d. due to Isaac Biard for 14 men of the “Fox,” and £512 13s. for 16 men of the “Patache,” Ph. Mauger, Isaac Biard and Jean being owners of the said privateers.
Many of these privateers were recognized by Government and Royalty amounted to 1/5th (I think) of the gross value of the captures. There is one certificate, thus, 29.04.1708. George Prince of Denmark as Lord High Admiral commissions Captain John Gruchy to set forth in warlike manner the “Victory” (of 70 tons) which he has equipped, furnished and victualled. Endorsed at foot July the 12th day, 1708. Giving to my lieutenant James Huray by me John Gruchy abord the “Victory.”
Also in 1799 H. and N. Le Mesurier were privateering agents, “The Resolution,” and on 21.10.1791, Le Mesurier and Hardy sign a receipt from Ozanne and Robinson for £3,370 tournois in paper money for tobacco.

The brothers sign with the double “s,” but Nicolas of Mauxmarquis (husband of 258E) with the single “s.” These Le Messuriers us the Le Mesurier Arms without the bezants. H.P. Le M. This Nicolas (244) dropped the second “s” for some 30 years while abroad, and then resumed it.

30.8.1882. Another memorial was sent to the S. Of S. for reconsideration, on the ground that the actual expense incurred was clearly stated in writing at £2,5000 and as this sum to all intents was accepted by the Secret Committee in 1851, the reimbursement of R. 5,000 in 1853 was therefore inadequate, and representing that the Govt of India had published the Report confidentially in 1876; that actual war in Egypt had unfortunately occurred when the information became in practical use, and its worth fully established.

H.P. LE M., Cairo, Easter Sunday 1882. The mottoes are various, viz., Fidelis et generous, old motto: Je suis loyal (240) (382) Metivi se quemque (249C) (249D) : I am ready : Nec temere nec timide “Fortiter et generose (174H).

DEATH OF CAPTAIN JOHN LE MESSURIER
With the death at 81 of Captain John Le Messurier, of Lousieville, Castel, which occurred on Saturday, goes another link with the old days of the wind-jammers, for the Captain was a master mariner and “occupied his business in deep waters” in his earlier days. Sir Edwin John Butler (1874 - 1943)
Sir Edwin John Butler FRS, Mycologist and Plant Pathologist, was born in Kilkee, Co. Clare, where his father was Resident Magistrate. He graduated in medicine from Queen's College Cork (now University College Cork) in 1898, but never practised. While a student, at a time when botany and microbiology were disciplines associated with medical schools, he developed a keen interest in plant-parasitic fungi, cytology (the study of cells) and the microflora of the College ponds.
After graduation, Edwin availed of an 1851 Exhibition travelling scholarship to study mycology (fungi) in Paris, Freiburg, Antibes and Kew. In 1901 he was appointed Cryptogamic Botanist to the Government of India. He trained mycologists and technicians in India, set up a herbarium and culture collection, inspired workers and advanced knowledge and research. In 1905 he was appointed Imperial Mycologist at the new Agricultural Research Station in Pusa, and in 1920 was appointed Agricultural Adviser to the Government of India. He is known in India as 'The Father of Indian Plant Pathology and Mycology'.
Edwin Butler investigated the diseases of many crops in India, including potatoes, wheat, rice, sugarcane, coconuts and rubber. He and his colleagues produced some 40 publications, including Fungi and Diseases in Plants, The Fungi of India, a classic monograph of the Pythium fungus, and Plant Pathology (which became the international textbook on plant diseases).
In 1920 Butler was appointed founding Director of the Imperial Mycological Bureau in London (now Bioservices, CAB International, Egham, Surrey, where one of the buildings is named after him), serving for 15 years. He initiated the Review of Applied Mycology, the foremost international abstracting journal on plant diseases. He held high office in many learned societies and was awarded Fellowship of the Royal Society (FRS) in 1926. He served as Secretary of the Agricultural Research Council from 1935 and was knighted in 1939.
In Ireland, he is commemorated by the Butler Medal, awarded periodically by the Society of Irish Plant Pathologists for significant contributions to plant disease research, and by a plaque in Kilkee public library.
